By GLADWIN HILL

LONDON, July 29.—(AP)—Victorious American troops have captured Coutances, driven westward to the sea just south of that Normandy road centre and pressed on at least nine miles to the south in a new threat to Field Marshal Rommel's whole defence of interior France, headquarters disclosed today.

Alberta Leads All Provinces In Farm Debt Protection Premier Tells 400 at Rally

Alberta under a Social Credit government has gone farther than any other province in Canada in extending protection against mortgage companies and other financial institutions to debt-ridden farmers caught in the economic maelstrom of bottomless prices for farm produce, Premier Ernest Manning told an enthusiastic audience of almost 400 persons at Stony Plain Friday night.

Speaking in the course of a top-to-bottom provincial tour, the premier appeared at Stony Plain in support of Mrs. Cornelia R. Wood, Social Credit candidate for the riding. Friday afternoon Mr. Manning and Mrs. Wood spoke at Entwistle to another capacity audience, coming to Stony Plain for an evening meeting.

Nomination stands, by parties, are as follows: Social Credit, 57; CCF, 57; Independent, 36; Labor-Progressive, 30; others, 4.

(The complete unofficial list of nominations will be found in tabulated form on Page 12.)

Latest nomination to be received here was of Stanley Dumka, Labor-Progressive candidate in Beaver River constituency. He will contest against Hon. Lucien Maynard, K.C., attorney-general and John Hennochko, CCF party.

No "dark horse" nominees were expected to enter the lists at the last minute, according to information available in political circles.

Enumeration returns have indicated a voters' list of approximately 63,000 names, largest in Edmonton's political history, will be printed for the election.

Nominees who have filed papers with Mr. Crawford, by parties, are as follows:

Edmonton Brigadier Is Awarded D.S.O.

OTTAWA, July 29.—(CP)—Acting Maj. Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister, 37, Vancouver, commander of a Canadian division in Italy, has been awarded a second Bar to the Distinguished Service Order, defence headquarters announced last night.

The departmental announcement included awards of the Distinguished Service Order to two acting Brigadiers, D. C. Spry, St. John's, Que., and W. S. Ziegler, Edmonton, and to a lieutenant-colonel, P. G. Griffin, of Ottawa and Toronto.

Brig. Hoffmeister, one of the youngest officers in the Canadian Army to hold rank of acting major-general, was promoted lieutenant-colonel in command of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada in September, 1942, and led the regiment in the Sicilian campaign.

At Agira he won the D.S.O. for "coolness and personal bravery under fire." During the campaign in Italy he was awarded a bar to the decoration for outstanding service. He was appointed brigadier in November, 1943, and in January was promoted to rank of acting major-general.

Reason for his latest award was not given, but it was presumed he gave his division in the battle for the Hitler line.

Also announced were the award of Military Crosses to two captains and two lieutenants; the Distinguished Conduct Medal to a sergeant, Military Medal to 11 other ranks and a mention in dispatches to an acting major.

The awards included:

SECOND BAR TO THE D.S.O.

Brig. (acting Maj.-Gen.) B. M. Hoffmeister, D.S.O., E.D., 37, Vancouver.

D.S.O.

Lt.-Col. (acting Brig.) W. S. Ziegler, 33, 10017 81st Ave., Edmonton.

Taxes paid by the utilities during the first six months of 1944 amounted to $405,576.31, compared with $327,616.91 for the same period last year, while net profits were $164,208.23 against $206,774.11.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS

Surpluses in other departments were materially affected through similar wage payments, the waterworks department surplus for the six months period being reduced to $10,285 compared with $23,224 for the six months period of 1943. The street railway department showed a surplus for the six months of 1944 of $12,244, compared with $16,224 for the same period last year.

All utilities, with the exception of the street railway system show substantial increases in the amounts set aside in renewal and replacement accounts. The street railway replacement account for the six months totals $141,720 compared with $184,285 for the same period last year.

RELEASES OTHER UNITS

The fall of the by-passed stronghold of Brest Litovsk, 115 miles east of Warsaw, to elements of Rokossovsky's army yesterday released huge additional forces for the assault on the capital and its early capture was anticipated.

CRITICIZES PROGRAM

Mrs. M. Butterworth was critical of the provincial government's health program. She said no measures had been taken for early detection of tuberculosis and cancer, and that the free hospitalization for all maternity cases should be augmented by pre-natal and post-natal care.

J. H. Dowler appealed to trade unionists to present a solid front in the fight for social security. He said it was time that the forces of labor consolidated their efforts to obtain ownership and control of the natural resources of the province.

James E. Enright charged that the Social Credit party had abandoned its fight against the "big interests", and was doing nothing to present the "little man" from being pushed around. He said that under the CCF governmental set-up there would be no little men.

Clifford E. Lee termed the provincial government's $1,000,000 housing proposal as a bait to the voters. He said that this amount would not provide one-twentieth of the homes required in Edmonton, and as a project to meet the housing requirements of the province it was totally inadequate. Elmer E. Roper, Alberta CCF leader, spoke at Brooks, Friday night.

ley's men were 15 to 20 miles south of their jump-off line of last Tuesday.

The BBC, quoting correspondents at Allied supreme headquarters, said today that American tanks were driving toward Brehel, 11 miles south of Coutances and 2 1/2 miles from the coast. The broadcast was recorded by CBS.

Due south of St. Lo another American column pushed down the Vire river from captured Tassy Sur Vire toward the key communications centre of Vire, 12 miles away. On the section of the 40-mile front east of St. Lo the road to Berigny and Bayeux was cleared of Germans. St. Jean des Baisants on the lateral St. Lo-Caumont highway and Bidouville were captured.

EVACUATION LIKELY

There was no evidence that any large number of Germans was caught in the Coutances area pocket formed by the junction of the westward thrust and the drives southward from the region of Lessay and Periers.

The absence of a pronounced delaying action in Rommel's precipitous withdrawal was interpreted by some as indicating he had time to evacuate the pocket.

BRITISH FRONT QUIET

The British 2nd Army front was quiet all day yesterday, Canadian Press War Correspondent William Stewart reported last night.

U.S. 9th Air Force pilots yesterday knocked out 70 German tanks over the Granville-Villedieu area. They damaged or probably destroyed 34 more, and altogether attacked 1,000 other German vehicles.

NO ORGANIZED LINE

American armor had yet to bump into an organized enemy line and the Germans were trying to protect their withdrawal with small groups of infantry and tanks left behind as rear guards. It appeared the American push would force Rommel within the next few days to pull back his forces roughly to a line running diagonally across northwestern France from Caen to Avranches, in the corner at the bases of the Normandy and Brittany peninsulas.

PORTLAND, Me., July 28.—(AP)—John C. Fowler, Torpedoman, says a whale helped his submarine elude attacking Japanese planes in the Pacific. He said the whale surfaced just as his sub dived and "from a distance the Japs couldn't tell the difference. They worked the whale over instead of us. When the whale dived they went after him and gave us a chance to slip away."

Govt. Forces Vote House Unanimously Approves Family Allowance Proposals Introduced by Premier King

ing criticism from CCF leader Goldwell to the effect earlier action should have been taken, declared it would not have been possible to get such an endorsement before.

The house heard Mackenzie King, the social reformer and the political leader in action in both roles. As a social reformer, he expounded the doctrines set forth in his writings of 25 years ago—that the community at large has an interest in industry, that it is not the concern of capital, labor and management alone.

RAPS HIS OPPONENTS
As political leader, he lashed out at his opponents in both the Progressive Conservative and CCF groups, rapped men who left posts in the public service in the midst of war when men were needed to organize political parties and, looking in the CCF direction, men who travel about the country "seeking to destroy a government that has been sent here to carry on the prosecution of the war."

Mr. King said he was sure the people of Canada had a moral sense and opponents who took advantage of the government's pre-occupation with war duties would find the voters would not be indifferent to their activities.

Opposition suggestions that family allowances were introduced to assist in winning the Quebec election were unworthy and absurd, said Mr. King. The allowances were announced last January in Speech from the Throne. Long before the date of the Quebec election was known, it would be as reasonable to say they had something to do with the Saskatchewan or the Alberta election.

PREJUDICE UNJUST
"At a time when young men from the province of Quebec are giving their lives along with their comrades from other provinces in the defence of this country and in the defence of freedom it ill suits any member of this house to seek to raise, in their absence, prejudice against the province from which they come," he said.

"There is no greater disservice that any member can render than to seek to raise in this country, any form of prejudice, racial prejudice, religious prejudice, class prejudice."

Progressive Conservative House Leader Graydon drew a cheer from Liberal members as he rose to vote for the bill.

That goes for John Bracken, too," said Mr. Graydon.

Earlier, Mr. King had twitted the Conservatives in the house with not supporting Mr. Bracken who, he said, had called the bill a kind of political bribery. At the same time he thanked all parties for the support accorded the measure.

He wounded two of the crew and was under continual fire during the attack.

Citations covering awards of the other ranks listed were not given.

Brig. William Smith Ziegler, who is 34 years old is thought to be the fourth Edmonton army man to win the award in this war.

Brig. Ziegler, whose wife lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dean, 10917 81 avenue, was an engineering student at the University of Alberta when the war broke out. Active in the Reserve Army, he immediately enlisted in the active army. He had joined the 61st Field Battery, RCA, in 1926, as a bugler as he was too young to enlist as a gunner. Later he became a gunner and still later was commissioned. By the time war broke out he was a captain.

In 1939 he was mobilized with a field regiment of artillery and went overseas in January, 1940.

He was promoted rapidly and in June, 1942, became a lieutenant-colonel in command of a field battery. In November of last year, he was in command of a Canadian field regiment, and later became a full colonel on the general staff at Canadian military headquarters. He became a brigadier in February, 1944.

He was born in Calgary, but attended Strathcona High school here, where he was prominent in athletics. At university he was active in athletics and student affairs.

Other city men who have been decorated with the DSO since 1939 include Brig. J. C. (Jeff) Jefferson, former commanding The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, who has the DSO and bar; Brig. John Napier Lane, 34, son of Capt. and Mrs. H. N. Lane, and Brig. R. A. Wyman, who also has the CBE and ED.

at 19 years of age, we feel they are old enough to have a voice in shaping the affairs of that country. I am confident our young people will not neglect the franchise extended to them on Aug. 8."

We have reached a place in the life of the province when decisions the people are called upon to make are far too serious and too big to be influenced by bickerings and influence of political campaigns, said Mr. Manning.

There are a lot of voices in Alberta today—some of them imported voices—and you need to know where those voices are coming from and what is the purpose behind them.

ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE
Nine years ago, Mr. Manning recalled, the people of Alberta launched an all-out offensive to break the stranglehold of money, the root cause of economic ills and the bottleneck of finance.

"Alberta has come a long way since 1935. She is known around the world as leader in the fight for democratic monetary reform."

The Premier referred to "cheap, tinhorn politicians" who are running around the country, saying they will reform it on the pattern of Australia and New Zealand. However, visitors from Australia and New Zealand "never heard tell of these fellows, but they have all heard of Alberta and Social Credit."

Alberta leads Canada in the field of public health, far outstripping other provinces in the field of services provided free. Cited by the Premier were free hospitalization and care for tuberculosis patients, infantile paralysis patients, cancer patients, and the newest step in the health program, free maternity legislation.

COPY SCHOOL PLAN
Alberta's education system is known all across Canada, Mr. Manning said. In the recent Saskatchewan election, speakers of all parties, Liberal, Progressive-Conservative and CCF, all promised to implement an education system modelled on Alberta's pattern.

"Now some of these speakers come into Alberta, condemning us for not doing a single thing since coming into power."

Reviewing the public debt situation, the speaker declared in the last nine years the province has gradually pried off some of the burden hanging around the necks of the public.

"Between 1905 and 1921, the province's Liberal government was 'liberal' in more ways than one. By 1921, the public debt had reached $95,000,000—no wonder the folks kicked them out."

"The UFA government in 19 years increased the public debt by $63,000,000—not quite as bad as the previous Liberal administration."

"In 1935, 30 years after Alberta was formed, her public debt reached $158,000,000 and was paying $7,500,000 a year in interest alone. Almost 40 per cent of provincial revenue was required to pay the interest alone."

PUBLIC DEBT REDUCED

"Today, in spite of our pay-as-you-go policy and construction of highways, also fully paid for, we have been able in nine years to reduce the public debt by $18,000,000. We have pried off at least a little of the burden of public debt."

Rejecting socialist claims that the Social Credit government is giving away oil and mineral resources of the province, the premier declared that any man making such a statement knew it was wrong, or else is ignorant of the facts.

He continued: "Never at any time has the Social Credit government given them away. What is more, it has no intention of doing so."

Companies and industries must lease oil resources, and the leases, including royalties payable, can be changed so as to guarantee the people of Alberta can have a share of the resources.

"Resources have no value whatever until they are developed. Only when someone develops and refines oil is it of practical value. The question is, 'How can people of the country develop natural resources from the raw state?'"

$136,000,000 SPENT

Since the oil industry started operations in the province, it has spent $136,000,000, said Mr. Manning.

In the same period, $118,000,000 of oil has been recovered, $18,000,000 less than has been spent. On top of this, the province has collected royalties and rentals totalling $13,000,000.

"If the people had developed the industry under public ownership, an additional debt of $18-

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

"It's this dang wallpaper bringing my hayfever back!"

000,000 would have been hung around their necks, instead of them receiving $13,000,000 in revenue."

"The socialists say, 'Pay social services in Alberta out of oil profits.' There have been 1,150 oil wells drilled in Alberta. Of these, 440 are producers, 175 are dry gas wells, and 535 are dry holes."

"They have nothing to say about the 535 dry holes that cost as much to develop as the 440 producing wells."

MINIMUM ROYALTY

Minimum oil royalty now payable on Crown lands in Alberta is 12½ per cent, the premier said. In addition, the government is paid annual leases and rentals. The government is taking no risk in development of wells, and if a dry well is drilled no public money would be expended in the process.

Before turning natural resources over to Alberta under the 1930 transfer agreement, the Dominion government gave away outright large areas containing oil and other natural resources. As a result, the total value of all oil produced on provincial lands last years was $7,000,000.

"Deduct the drilling and operational costs, the refining costs, pipeline costs, distributing costs. There wouldn't be much left to pay for social services out of the oil resources," said Mr. Manning.

"I'm not defending the oil companies. We have fought them for nine years," he went on. "We've jumped royalties and we've jumped leases, and they claim we've persecuted them."

Socialist speakers are now shying away from oil, and are talking of socializing the Calgary Power Company. "All that means is that in place of the present shareholders, there will have to be a new group. Three per cent interest on $20,000,000 of debentures (the cost of taking over assets of the power company) would mean another $600,000 to be backed by the provincial treasurer."

"The problem of rural electrification is not one of getting plants. There are lots of them. The problem is in getting miles and miles of expensive transmission lines, to supply power cheaply to farmers."

Socializing the breweries is "the jewel of them all," the premier quipped. He referred to a brewery in the south, which under a socialist regime would display a huge Neon sign atop its plant.

The sign would carry the three letters, "CCP," advertising the socialized product—"Coldwell's Certified Firewater."

REHABILITATION PLANS

The Social Credit government has gone farther than any other provincial authority in the field of post-war rehabilitation, the meeting was told. The Veterans' Welfare Commission, established recently under the department of public welfare, has been formed to give assistance to men and women of the armed services, as well as to give advice and assistance to dependents of men and women in the services. This service is another "first" for Alberta, said Mr. Manning.

Outlining government plans for soldiers who wish to go on the land after the war, the premier said certain areas of Crown lands have already been set aside for the purpose.

These areas will be soil surveyed to prevent repetition of conditions under the Soldier Settlement Board of the last war, when returned men in some instances were given "sandpiles and rock piles."

A half-section of suitable land will be given to returned men for a three-year period, rent and tax-free.

For the next seven years, the land will be free of tax, but the settler will be required to pay an annual rent of one-eighth of his crop, provided the yield is over 5 bushels to the acre. If it is less, no rent will be charged.

TO GIVE FULL TITLE

At the end of the 10-year period, full title is given to the half-section. "The least the province can do is give 320 acres of land to the boys who are fighting for our land in overseas campaigns," Mr. Manning declared amid applause. "Alberta is the only province in Canada to do this."

Permanent solution to problems confronting citizens lies in removal of the man-made bottleneck of money that has always stood in the way of the people, said the premier.

"Everything we do as a Social Credit government, and everything the Social Credit movement does, is directed towards the unceasing fight to remove the bottleneck of money."

Canadian problems are not of production, because with men and women in the armed services, others in munitions plants and also out of producing consumer goods, the country's remaining workers can produce all the basic requirements for civilians, the armed services, and still send a billion dollars of surplus goods to Britain.

AMPLE PRODUCTION

"It is obvious to anyone that as far as production is concerned, we can produce enough to lift the people so high they will be away above insecurity."

"Our problem before the war was of distribution and after the war will still be one of distribution. "The present monopoly financial system, there is never enough man-made money paid to buy sufficient goods and services to give comfort and security."

Mr. Manning declared Social Credit believes the principle of monopolies is wrong, and what is needed is decentralization. He said he was at a loss to understand how some condemn individual monopolies of trade, commerce and industry, but yet advocate a gigantic state monopoly controlling the whole life of the country.

While in other provinces the election issue before voters is what to put in place of the old order, this was changed in Alberta 10 years ago, said the premier.

"Here, the issue is, shall we sell our birthright of freedom for a mess of red socialist porridge?"

A return of the Social Credit government on Aug. 8 will send the party across the country like "a prairie fire before the wind," Mr. Manning concluded, warning that the destiny of Canada for the next 25 years rests in hands of Alberta voters.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Mrs. Wood, speaking at the start of the meeting, told hearers the root cause of trouble today is lack of control of credit. "Till we get that, all talk of democracy is idle and futile," she said.

Three outstanding things the Social Credit government has done include opening the eyes of Canada to realize that "tinkering on the surface" is no solution to our problems; revealing the plans of international dictators for the post-war period; and offering a solution to problems now confronting us, Mrs. Wood went on.

She warned of plans for the future large international bank, saying it would control all nations of the world. The proposed international police force would be controlled by the international bank, while courts and citizenship rights would also be part of the vast plan.

"All these airports we are building will make good landing fields for the international police," Mrs. Wood stated.

FIGHT DESPITE JEERS

"We can tell the world on Aug. 8 that we are still on the trail of finance. We stopped borrowing on April 1, 1936. Since then we have not been told what to do by finance. We have persevered in the face of criticism and jeers at our efforts to get protection for the people, and we have been successful."

On election day voters can give finance a "third stab in the back," said Mrs. Wood. "The first was given in 1935, the second in 1940, and now we can give a third."

"Man must be the ruler. Money has been the ruler for too long. The people have the ballot to do this."

"Under the present system we are slaves to money, and it is time we awakened. Anything made by man that doesn't work for man can be altered until it does—and that's what must be done on Aug. 8. Social Credit is a simple formula to distribute production. It will work scientifically, it can work, and it must be made to work if we are to attain security and democracy."

Mrs. Wood said those opposed to private ownership suggest state control as an alternative, which means installations must be taken over by confiscation or by payment of compensation.

SEIZE BY FORCE

"Confiscation means to seize by force. What right has any group of people to seize by force anything that belongs to others?"

"If they buy all the industries in the province and all the people put up all the money they have, there won't be enough to do it. Then they would go to the financial institutions. That would be out of the frying pan into the fire, and how you will fry it if you do that."

David Duncan, president of Edmonton Social Credit Constituency Association, was chairman of the Eniwale meeting. At Stony Plain, C. W. Ibsen was chairman.

Dear

Well, our better-than-Florida-weather is back again. Evidently the Weather Man is making amends for last year's shortcomings. We have lots of rain, but it has been early or falling overnight, both acceptable to sun-bath enthusiasts and the farming community.

Crops, by the way, are doing better than ever around here this year. Last reports from the provincial department of agriculture say that while there is another drought "way down south," we have plenty of moisture here, enough in fact to last till harvest time.

The election is occupying everyone's attention just now. Both Social Credit and CCF parties have completed nominations in every constituency. A total of 183 candidates have been named to date.

Canada is doing a marvellous job in providing recreational facilities for members of the armed forces, both overseas and at home, according to Lord Sempill, co-ordinator of National War Services, who is in Edmonton conferring with Maj. Gen. W. W. Foster, C.M.G., D.S.O., E.D., special commissioner for northwest defence projects.

An entirely new set of champions was crowned over the week-end in finals of the annual Civil Service Tennis Association tournament played at the Civil Service courts before a large gallery.

Leroy Goldsworthy, who is currently as handy with a set of golfing weapons as he is to be with a hockey bludgeon, headed a field of 54 to win the qualifying round of the annual Mayfair Golf and Country Club championships at the Mayfair Club course.

A threat in the dying innings by the Dodgers that netted them five runs fell a little short in the baseball clash at Renfrew Park when the league leading U.S. Army Yanks wound up on the winning end of an 8-5 score. The Dodgers came back later to beat the Arrows 11-6 and remain close on the leaders' heels in the tight race.

The winner of the War Services Council $6,000 bungalow, at the corner of 84 street and 112 avenue, was decided Saturday night at the close of the Gyro Carnival, when the lucky ticket, No. 25611, held by Mrs. Allan Scott of 12219 128 street, was drawn before a capacity crowd by Harold L. Weir, president of the War Services Council for Northern Alberta.

Cheering crowds gave members of Reserve Army units a fine send-off Saturday night when they left for Camp Sarnee. Headquarters of Northwest Service Command, U.S. Army, will be moved from the former Jesuit College here to Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, within the next 60 days, it was announced Monday by Col. F. S. Strong, commanding officer of Northwest Service Command.

Alberta service men and women in 20 military stations in the province will cast their ballots in the provincial general election of Aug. 8 at special polls provided on Friday, Aug. 4.

Three German prisoners of war, who escaped from the Etter-McDougall Lumber Company camp near Winfield, Sunday, were recaptured Monday according to RCMP. First case of undulant fever reported in Edmonton for many years came to the attention of the city health department at the end of last week, according to a report filed with the city commissioners by Dr. G. M. Little, medical officer of health. Sgt. George Wilson Edwards, City of Edmonton police officer for almost 30 years, has retired from the force, according to Chief Constable Reginald Jennings.

Several hundred rose blossoms, displayed in the rotunda of the Capitol theatre heralded the opening of Edmonton's 12th Annual Rose Show, with Ernest J. Stowe, the judge, choosing a crimson rose of the George Dickson variety, exhibited by Mrs. J. J. McDonnell, 10946 117 street, as the winner of The Edmonton Bulletin trophy for the best bloom in the show. A coroner's jury, continuing inquiry into the death of Merrill Frederick Lydell of Grande Prairie, whose mutilated body was found on the Canadian Pacific Railway right-of-way about four miles south of the city on July 4 last, found that "from evidence received we have no knowledge of what caused his death."

July 26

Veteran exponent of the royal and ancient game in Alberta, and winner of many a hard-fought battle of the links in past years, Joseph Welch of Red Deer, Tuesday added the Calgary Herald trophy to his bag of golfing "loot," defeating F.O. J. Elmes of Medicine Hat in a hard-fought 36-hole final match of the Alberta district golf championship at the Edmonton Golf and Country Club course.

Relief chucker Al. Waker's wild throw in the hot corner with two out in the last of a highly tense 11-inning Senior Baseball League game, before a large crowd at Renfrew Park, allowed Bert Culver to score from third with the winning run as the U.S. Signals shaded the Yanks 8-7. The Civil Service Tennis Club team of George Docherty and Alf. Blyth made good its first defence of the Kavanaugh trophy against the Garneau Club challengers of Ed. Hall and Paul Drown in four sets.

Moose pushed across three runs in the last of the ninth to edge out North West Staging Route 5-4 in the deciding game of the best of three senior men's provincial play-off series at Kingsway Park. The two clubs split the doubleheader on Sunday to force another contest. Total of $449,000 will be capped off the City of Edmonton's debt on Aug. 1 as debentures called for that date are redeemed and cancelled under the refunding plan now being negotiated.

Sale of land through the city land department during July will substantially exceed $50,000, according to an official of the department. The promotion of two members of the 2nd (R) Bn. No surplus U.S. equipment has been offered to Canada other than under special emergency arrangements whereby the Canadian government could obtain equipment, surplus to U.S. needs, for use of Canadian contractors working on joint defence projects which had become the responsibility of the Canadian government, it was stated by Maj. Gen. W. W. Foster, C.M.G., D.S.O., V.D., special commissioner for defence projects in Northwest Canada.

A 25-pound sturgeon was sucked into the power plant intake and was carried through to the filter screening, where it was pulled out. William Darby, engineer at the city power plant, said it is not unusual to get sturgeon weighing up to 40 pounds through the power plant intake, and he expressed his opinion that the Ozogogons seen so often in the upper reaches of the Saskatchewan river are nothing more or less than large sturgeon sheltering near the river banks.

A total of 62,166 voters have been listed in enumerations last completed in Edmonton. Sufficient reserve of moisture to last until harvest and excellent conditions of all crops are reported for Edmonton district in the provincial department of agriculture's sixth crop report of the 1944 season.

Newly appointed district medical officer of Military District No. 13, Col. James Ean Hunter, RCAMC, has replaced Lt. Col. J. A. Reid, who is expected to retire shortly from the Canadian Army.

Election officers estimated that enumeration of electors throughout Alberta for the provincial general election totals would reach 450,000 names, an increase of 22,700 over the 427,245 names enumerated in the 1940 general election.

That's all for now.
Best of everything until next week.

Alberta's Social Services

The province of Alberta, under the Manning Social Credit Government, has achieved leadership in social services. No other province approaches the social-consciousness of Alberta in a practical and effective way.

In the field of mothers' allowances, grants in 1935 amounted to $507,000, of which 50 per cent was paid by municipalities. Grants in 1944 have amounted to $850,000 of which 25 per cent is charged to municipalities. Deserted mothers are now included in the provision.

Alberta leads all of Canada in old age pensions. This province has led the way in the provision of economic security for those who have devoted the best years of their lives to the development of the country.

As of March, 1942, old age pensioners in Alberta were receiving $20 per month, 15 per cent of which was paid by the province, 10 per cent by the municipalities and 75 per cent federally.

In March, 1942, the Alberta Government increased that pension of its own volition to $25 per month, paying the extra $5 out of its own funds.

In August, 1943, a pension of $25 per month was provided to be paid jointly by the provinces, the municipalities and the federal treasury. Again the Manning Government added $5 to the monthly pension, bringing it up to $30 per month. This is the largest per capita contribution to the old age pension made by any province in Canada and establishes the leadership of the Manning Government in social reform. It is the largest contribution the Dominion Government permits to be made, although Alberta stands for a $50 pension starting at an age of 60.

Alberta's policy in regard to child welfare is equally progressive and enlightened. There are no reform schools in this province. Delinquent children are placed in carefully selected foster homes. The results are unequalled on the North American continent.

The establishment this year of a department of public welfare to coordinate all public welfare services, including those extended to veterans and to youth, indicate the scope of the social plans of the Manning Government.

All this is accomplished fact, not theory nor promises. It is a working mechanism built on a highly developed social-consciousness.

What need is there to call in a group of political experimenters who are already finding it impossible, in Saskatchewan, to work out many of their theories after only a few weeks in office?

Here is a set of solid established facts which the voters of Alberta will consider, soberly and carefully on August 8.

America Threatened

Many competent military observers are inclined to believe the announcement of Nazi Propaganda Minister Goebbels, in spite of his known mendacity, when he declares that bigger and more terrible weapons of assault are being prepared for use on the Allied civilian populations.

If this is true, and if the robot bomb is being given greater range and greater explosive power, the chances are it will be used against the United States and Canada, rather than against Britain.

That statement is supported by two very good reasons:

1. There is no need to step up the range of the present bomb very materially to reach all parts of England. If a wider range is contemplated, it is obviously intended for use elsewhere.

2. The Nazis know now that since Britain went through the terror raiding of 1940 and is enduring the robot bombing of 1944 without the slightest break in civilian morale, the use of terror against the British is not profitable.

It is reasonable to suppose, therefore, that they will try their luck on this continent.

Back to the Commons

The Banking and Commerce Committee has concluded its examination of the bill to extend the charter of the Canadian banks for ten years and the bill goes back to the House of Commons for legislative action.

The gallant fight made in committee by G. G. McGeer, K.C., Liberal member for Vancouver Burrard, and Arthur Slaght, K.C., Liberal member for Parry Sound, Ont., and John Blackmore, Social Credit house leader, to secure amendments to the bill that would end the domination of the private money monopoly was unavailing.

There is no doubt that they will carry this fight into the House of Commons and a further attempt will be made there to free the Canadian people from the slavery of the debt claim system maintained as a privilege of our present banking structure.

This enlargement of the debate, seeking to abolish the toll gate through which a private monopoly imposes interest charges and debt claim liabilities, will be of wide significance. For it will constitute a plain and decisive test of exactly which of the Liberal members of parliament still hold to the Liberal pledges of 1935 and 1940 when the cry "Make money your servant and not your master" was the basis of the Liberal platform and received an overwhelming endorsement from the electorate.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King's speech on family allowances, in which he declared that the greatest need of the country was purchasing power for those who required it, indicates that he is still devoted to the cause of monetary reform. Leading the reactionary wing of the Liberal party is the Hon. J. L. Halsey who has consistently repudiated the election platforms of 1935 and 1940.

Messrs. McGeer and Slaght will do a great service to the country by placing the issue of monetary reform squarely before all the sitting members of the Liberal party. The electorate, particularly the Alberta electorate, will watch with keen interest the action taken by these members who will have to make up their minds decisively whether they stand for financial freedom or financial slavery, whether they follow Mr. King or Mr. Halsey.

Russia and Poland

It is highly unfortunate, at this critical moment, that Russia should see fit to turn up her nose at the Polish government in exile in London and decide to deal entirely with a Polish national committee of liberation which, it is believed, is dominated by the Soviets.

It is unfortunate, but it is not necessarily fatal. Nor does it naturally follow, as has been alleged, that this committee of liberation, just because it is dominated by Russia, is prepared to swing Poland to communism.

Everyone, including the Poles, has a high opinion of Polish patriotism. It is extremely unlikely, then, that it would be possible to get together a group of Poles, large enough to govern the country, who would be willing to thus betray it to a principle which is abhorrent to Polish tradition, Polish religion and Polish well-being.

The situation is admittedly grave because it sets up a division among the Polish people. But it is not alarming because the committee of liberation is only another party. Its members are still Poles and presumably patriotic Poles.

Nor can Russia be blamed too much. It is easier to deal with a group close at hand than with a group on the other side of Europe, particularly when the war has entered a phase when decisions must be immediate.

We ourselves played hide-and-seek with General de Gaulle too long to reproach any other country with the same kind of practice.

Stalin has given assurances of the integrity of Poland. There is no reason yet to doubt them.

War-time Regulations

Editor, Bulletin: It was with mixed feelings of amazement and doubt, that I read of Premier Godbout's speech at L'Islet, Quebec, under the date of July 10, where he stated, "There is not one farmer's son in the army, if he is useful on the farm and has complied with wartime regulations, because Mr. King (Prime Minister) is at Ottawa."

What are these wartime regulations to which Mr. Godbout refers, if any? Do they apply in the West as well as in Quebec?

It is a well-known fact that large numbers of farmers sons were drafted in the western provinces, causing a serious decrease in farm production, only to be shuttled across the continent from camp to camp at the expense of the taxpayer, while in some instances, aged and infirm parents are left to face real hardships and to carry on as best as they can.

Planned Economy

Editor Bulletin: It is interesting to note the Saskatchewan premier's remarks about the difficulty of finding money to take over the power lines. I wonder how many other stumbling blocks in their way the C.C.F. in that province will find in their pursuit of a planned economy.

Perhaps a little responsibility will clear up a few of the hazy ideas and visions which irresponsibility previously allowed them to play around with.

The talk of a planned economy reminds me of the mess into which the New Deal planners in the United States recently got their agricultural community. The story of planning of production of pork, eggs, corn and feed would be very amusing if it did not have rather dire consequences for the consuming public.

It is a story made to order for those who want to make political capital out of it, but essentially it is just the same old story of the fallibility of human judgment.

Praises Article
Editor, Bulletin: You are to be congratulated for the article by E. S. Woodward, entitled "Commando Save Rockies Town."

The teacher who evolved that program to successfully offset juvenile delinquency should be decorated.

That article should be sent to every school teacher in this province, and I would like to see our school authorities find out the details of this program and put it to work in every school.

Good work, E. S. Woodward. Let's have more news like that.

Votes for Japanese

Editor, Bulletin: For some time now the CCF has used the Japanese vote topic to gain publicity and headline space. Will they continue to want the vote for the Japanese or will they switch over to some other brainwave that will bring more limelight?

To myself and others in the service it seems that the CCF organization is not behind the war effort. Rather than assist our present government, who could stand a lot of assistance, they undermine what little government we have.

In the House of Commons, July 17, 1944, the CCF spokesman, Clarence Gillis, made it clear that his party was in favor of giving the Japanese the vote in "our" country.

At a time like this, when important matters dealing with Canadians who are not here to speak for themselves but who are fighting to prevent what the CCF is attempting to attain, the topic of our government leaders is the care and welfare of the Japanese.

Mr. Gillis seems to think the Japanese in Canada are 100 per cent Canadians; however, he admits the province he comes from has not had the pleasure of their society. Does Mr. Gillis understand the Japanese way of living in Canada?

Now the shoddy will give per-

If he does not, it is suggested that he go to Stevenson, B.C., which, previous to moving the Japanese, was a Japanese colony. Any of the white residents who were there at the time of the Japanese will enlighten him, in particular the white fishermen.

Cats

Editor, Bulletin: It has been proved beyond any doubt that cats convey disease germs. I am talking from experience over a number of years. Generally speaking, directly a child is taken sick, say from scarlet fever, measles, etc., up goes the pet cat into the bedroom and most certainly into the bed of the child.

If that cat were isolated during the whole of the sickness and not allowed to mix with other cats or children, well and good. Dirt really is not the cause of ringworm for if so a few hundred thousand of London slum districts would be affected. The reverse is most noticeable.

I quote a case that comes to my mind in Los Angeles. There were three apartment houses where at least 20 children lived. There was a cat belonging to a house opposite which was taken across the street for the children's play and pleasure. A child was taken with scarlet fever in the house. The doctor cautioned the parents to keep the cat in, but however it got across the street and within nine weeks over 15 children had scarlet fever. The doctor was very angry and blamed the epidemic entirely on the cat.

Young Voters

Editor Bulletin: When talking with a young lady yesterday, 19 years of age, I said, "I hope you will support the Social Credit candidates."

She curtly replied, "You will never persuade me to vote Social Credit."

I said: "It is your privilege to vote any way you wish to, but has it occurred to you that you would not be able to vote at all at this election, had it not been for the Social Credit government giving you the franchise?"

You will either vote for bondage or freedom, and it is for you to choose which.

"For Western Trade"

Editor, Bulletin: I quite agree with the Edmonton cobbler with his fifty years experience as contained in your paper of the 22nd. I spent over 25 years behind the counters of general merchandise stores in Ontario. My last clerkship was 9 years with a firm who imported the greater portion of their goods from the Old Country except boots and shoes.

During my nine years in their boot and shoe department I had the privilege of selecting my own stock, and I quite well remember on one occasion when the active member of the firm told me the representative of the wholesale boot and shoe firm they had dealt with for years had his samples spread out at the Central hotel and did require any supplies.

I said I would like to place a sorting order as some of my best selling sizes in many lines were running low.

In beginning my selection from the table I picked up a woman's high laced shoe of very neat appearance and an almost exact facsimile of what I had in stock. I said to the agent "What is your price on this line?"

He took it from my hand and looked at the attached ticket and put it back on the table with the remark "That won't suit your trade at all. That is for your western trade."

Now my purpose in writing this letter is to let the public know the difference between the solid leather goods and the shoddy.

The genuine has or should have a solid leather upper of calfskin, a solid leather insole, a solid counter at the heel that will not turn sideways and a solid leather outer sole. The shoddy has the direct opposite. The upper being invariably split leather, the insole and counter of cardboard the color of leather, the outer sole and heel of cardboard with a thin slice of leather, the whole with a projecting sole well stitched together to hold the shoes together.

Now the shoddy will give per-

Impartial Voter

Editor, Bulletin: We have two candidates, Dave Roberts is the CCF candidate, and promises to lend us money at 1%, which is very generous, as the province borrows from the federal government, and they pay 3%. I like Dave, and when he comes to canvass I'll get a loan of $10,000, but as I've been used to elections for 66 years, I'll get the loan before the election. Then I'll buy a farm from a loan company and sell it for $12,000, after the election, with 3% interest. Of course I'll promise to vote for Dave.

When Baker comes, I'll get him to pay the past due $25 dividends to my wife and me, but we must get that too, before the election, and then I'll promise to vote for him. They are both men of much promise, of very many promises, just like the parties to which they belong. If they fail to come, I'll have to vote for both anyway, because both parties, in their promises, come up very near to my suggestion: that is to reduce the revenue to one quarter, and multiply the expenditure by four.

Orphanage

Editor Bulletin: It is time for candidates to declare themselves for or against slavery. The next Legislative Assembly must be called upon to end the anti-social program of freeing homeless children in a state of orphanage and denying adoption without any hearing before any court of competent jurisdiction. In a democracy—in any decent society—equal rights to parenthood is not unreasonable to ask. What do the "experts" offer in place of worthy home life? Nothing. This proves their incompetence to manage other people's family affairs, for one cannot live in a vacuum. If they despise virtue, throw them out; for fundamental principles don't change, and there are still many who believe in clean, Christian lives. While most people are permitted to assume parenthood without question, let there be no more denial of parenthood without due process of law.

Privileged Class

Editor Bulletin: We will always have a "privileged class" in this world, as long as people earn that privilege.

The privileged class in Canada are, and will continue to be, the veterans, men who are not afraid to die, if needs be, that their country may remain free.

Men who have shirked their duty, such as conscientious objectors, can not expect to be on a par with men who have fulfilled their duties as citizens. Conscientious objectors should be disfranchised. It would be grossly unfair, if at the end of this terrific struggle, these objectors enjoy equal citizenship rights with men, real men, who have offered their all to their country.

Even munition workers, as vital as their work is to the war effort, can not begin to compare themselves to the sacrifices made by veterans, they are fair; they realize

Major and Minor Notes

By John Oliver

JOHN OLIVER

PLANS for next season's activities by the Edmonton Civic Opera Society took definite form today with the announcement that its autumn production would be Sigmund Romberg's opera of early days in and around Louisiana, namely, New Moon. After extensive discussion and thorough consideration of suitable works, the society executive left the final decision to Mrs. J. B. Carmichael, general musical director, and Laurier Picard, dramatic director. Then, as Sir W. S. Gilbert wrote in "The Pirates of Penzance," Mrs. Carmichael and Mr. Picard "taking one consideration with another," cast their ballots in the direction of Romberg's tuneful and colorful opera. The production is scheduled for November, and it is confidently expected that the Empire theatre will be available by that time, although there has been neither definite assurance or announcement to that effect.

In view of the comprehensive cast required for New Moon, and in the realization that there is much talent here as a result of the influx of transient war workers, as well as much native ability which has come to fruition in the last year or so, Mrs. Carmichael stated that she will welcome aspirants for roles, and those desiring an audition, or a consultation, may contact her by phoning her home, the number being 22971.

Several singers have indicated that they would like to try out. Mrs. Carmichael hopes to give them, and others who may contact her, early hearings so that she may obtain a fair idea of available new talent by the middle of August, and have recruits ready for commencement of rehearsals in September. Some new singers may be added to the chorus, but as this department is, and always has been one of the society's strongest points, the need in this direction is not great.

It is more than probable that some of the mainstays of recent shows will not be with the company next season. Noreen Bristow, leading soprano, is at Vancouver, appearing in the Theatre Under the Stars. While her plans for the future are indefinite, there is some expectation that the Vancouver organization will go on tour in "Waltzes from Vienna," a musical show founded on Johann Strauss melodies and incidents in his life. If this transpires, she may be lost to Edmonton audiences. Desmond Olson, comedian, who scored in last season's show, also is appearing with the Theatre Under the Stars, and latest information to hand is that he may remain at the coast.

Shirley Neher, whose work in "The Firefly" and "Katinka" was first class, is rumored as a possible absentee next season. Should she be unavailable, she will be missed. With these possible losses confronting the company, Mrs. Carmichael is hopeful that new talent will be revealed.

Welford Johnston who sang the leading baritone role in "Flora" two seasons ago is one singer upon whom Mrs. Carmichael is counting for considerable vocal aid. She expressed herself as highly pleased with his improvement in singing, and is hopeful that by the autumn his confidence on the stage will have gained sufficiently to bring his histrionic ability to a peak with his singing. In any case, there is a precious baritone role in New Moon, so do not be surprised if he draws the assignment.

Born in 1887 Romberg was educated at Bucharest University and was pointed toward becoming an expert bridge engineer. However, his love for music finally gained the upper hand. A brilliant pianist, he crossed the Atlantic in 1909 and established himself at New York, at first playing the piano in cafe orchestras for a livelihood. Then he turned toward composing, and his first published work, a fox-trot went by the unaltered title of "Leg-o-Mutton." By 1913 he was composing the scores for revues and musical plays and since then he has contributed an impressive list of outstanding international successes, including "Maytime," "Blossom Time," "The Student Prince," "The Desert Song," "My Maryland," and others.

New Moon first shone down on a delighted audience at the Imperial Theatre, New York, Sept. 19, 1928, and its melodies have remained brilliant ever since. Some of the more popular numbers in the score are "Love Come Back to Me," "On Kisses, Softly As Of A Morning Sunrise," "Waiting You," and the stirring march "Stout Hearted Men." The popularity of the opera already has justified two Hollywood versions, the first about 10 years ago with Lawrence Tibbett in the leading role, and the second a few years ago, featuring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy.

When Jan Pearce, tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Association was here last spring in the Celebrity Series of concerts sponsored by the Women's Musical Club, he suggested that Miss Pauline, Edmonton-born mezzo-soprano of the same opera company, soon would be singing the title role of "Carmen" at the Met. Those who heard Miss Pauline felt that his prediction was well founded, and justified. Now there is evidence to hand that she is heading in that direction, and while the "Met" has not announced its complete plans for next season, she may actually sing the role of the fiery girl.

But it is definite that she will sing the role of Carmen, and with a first string organization. The Columbia Concerts of New York is organizing a company which will make tours this fall and next spring playing "Carmen." A new English version will be used, and it will employ recitatives and spoken dialogue for the music was written in a Vienna production of 1875 by Ernest Guiraud. Miss Pauline has been selected as the first string singer of the title role. Alternating with her, owing to the frequency of engagements, will be Lucille Browning and Regina Resnik, also of the "Met."

Others in the company will be Lansing Hatfield, who will be the Escamillo; Maxine Steiman of the "Met"; Enya Gonzalez, and many others. The autumn tour will begin Oct. 2 and the spring tour on April 2. In between it is likely that Miss Pauline will sing the same role at the "Met." Incidentally, she and Mr. Pearce recently appeared in concert together in New York in support of the latest war loan.

Frances Kitchen, pianist and teacher of this city won an outstanding award from the Toronto Conservatory of Music for examinations held in June. She was awarded the gold medal for the highest marks obtained in her class throughout the Dominion, the award covering both practical and theoretical work. In addition, one of her pupils, Eleanor Inkpen, won the silver medal for obtaining 88 marks, the highest obtained by any Grade 2 pupil in Alberta. Miss Kitchen is a pupil of Mme. Jenny LeSautier, whose associated teaching has achieved notable success with their pupils in the exams.

Talented

Miss Myrtle Coote, one of this city's most popular and accomplished musicians, who is to be married on Aug. 2 to Pte. W. M. Kerr, of this city now on active service with the Canadian Army. Miss Coote received most of her musical training at Alberta College and is an associate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, holding a teachers certificate. She taught piano for four years and has been accompanist of the Lyric Ladies' Chorus, a member of the Melodic Trio, the pianist at Nerwood United Sunday school and has accompanied many solo and choral groups. She is assistant organist at Noxwood United church and for the last year has been conductor of its junior choir. For the last four and a half years she has been in charge of the record department at Heintzman and Company's store. Pte. Kerr is a talented violinist.

HOLDEN—The vote taken on July 26 for the proposed municipal hospital was against the scheme. A small number of ratepayers turned out to vote. There is only one doctor in a distance of about 80 miles east of Edmonton.

JASPER—Pete Withers will leave Saturday morning for Medicine and Maligne Lakes and return by way of the Sky Line Trail. He expects to be away about eight days and has as his companions on the trip Bill Louth, Tom Berry and Harry Wilkins. Mrs. W. Popey and her daughter, Mrs. F. Lewis, left this week to spend a vacation at the Pacific coast. They will visit with Mrs. Popey's two daughters, Joyce and Olive, who are living there. Henrietta Yuda of Mundare is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Mullen.

LLOYDMINSTER—What might have been a serious fire on the mid-way at the exhibition Wednesday afternoon was averted by the presence of mind of the operators of the hot dog stand who smothered a blazing gasoline tank with coats and so preventing an explosion. Ball teams taking part in the exhibition were: Women's softball—Mannville, McLaughlin, Tebo Corner, Kitaco, Marshall, Streamstown, Hillmond and Lloydminster. Mannville was awarded the exhibition championship. In the men's softball, the teams entered were: Warriekville, Marwayne, Lone Rock, North, Bend, McLaughlin, Hillmond, Rivercourse, Southminster, Wesco, Paradise Valley, Marshall, Millerton, Lashburn, Standard Hill, Marsden. Marsden team was awarded the championship of the exhibition. In spite of rainy weather, George Roos, general manager of the exhibition and Mat Al-sagar, president, say they are well satisfied with the success of the 1944 venture.

Red Deer Club Raffles Cottage

RED DEER—Members of the Red Deer Kinsmen Club are well pleased with the results of the summer cottage raffle they conducted. Net proceeds amounted to $8,336.74. To this amount the club added enough from other funds to send a cheque for $9,000 to the Milk-for-Britain fund. This makes a total of $17,336.74 sent by the club to the Milk-for-Britain fund in the 12 months ended July 31. Tickets in the cottage raffle were bought from coast to coast in Canada and many in the United States. Henry Hensell, of Empress, held the winning ticket, when the draw was made at Sylvan Lake on July 19.

The Red Deer Rotary Club at their meeting this week decided to assist the Salvation Army with its Red Shield campaign in the fall. A committee will be appointed to aid in the work. The club also assisted the Army in the campaign in 1943.

In the second meeting of the teams this season the Red Deer Lions checked up a 10-7 win over the Kinsmen in a football game at the school grounds. The Kinsmen took the first game by a 18-10 count. A third game is in the making.

Behind the hurling of Frank Nundahl and with some good hitting, the Kinsmen jumped in an early lead and were out in front 6-1 in the sixth inning. The Lions came to life in this inning and drove in half a dozen runs to take a 7-6 lead. They added two more in the eighth and got another in the ninth. Dancocks in the box for the Lions held his opponents to a lone run from the sixth on. For the winners, Kalfleish, Sharpe and Amundrud stood out in addition to pitcher, while for the losers in addition to Nundahl other stars were Sim, Bootman and Casway.

City council this week sold four sites for homes. Orville Wolfe bought 50 feet east of J. Witluk's home on Ross street and will build a $4,000 house. D. F. Jellison and D. Dechaener, who had earlier bought lots on the south side of Third street, north, wished to change these lots for others. The agreement with Mr. Jellison was cancelled and he bought 75 feet on Fifth street south. Mr. Dechaener will probably buy some land on the north side of Second street north. C. J. Maxwell bought 50 feet on Third street south on which he will build a $4,500 house.

Cadomin Cadets Back From Camp

CADOMIN—The cadet corps returned Wednesday from Sarnia Camp at Calgary. The boys, all in all were tanned, tired and happy, after a successful trip to camp. Cadets from Mountain Park, Lussac, Merceuil and Edson, numbering 150 in all were in charge of L. H. O. Harper, principal of the school. The director of the Dominion Army cadets said the work of the boys was outstanding. Hugh Campbell of Cadomin and Mike Kinosh of Lussac gained honors for the highest grade in rifle shooting.

Cadomin corps was the second largest in attendance in Alberta, Lethbridge being the largest.

Reports say that plenty of rations were provided and the canteen well stocked with soft drinks, ice cream and chocolate bars.

SYLVAN LAKE—One of the largest crowds in the history of this resort is here now and enjoying the wonderful weather. About 1,300 visitors have already signed a register kept by a private citizen at a prominent spot in town, and the week-end crowds are unusually large.

German Cities Heavily Raided By Night, Day

By WALTER CRONKITE
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press
LONDON, July 29.—A fleet of more than 1,000 American heavy bombers attacked the big synthetic oil refinery at Merseburg, 25 miles west of Leipzig in southwestern Germany, today, after a night raid by RAF and RCAF bombers in similar strength on the port of Hamburg and the industrial city of Stuttgart.

It was the second consecutive day of air assault for Merseburg and the fourth raid in a week on Stuttgart.

In the daylight raid, Eighth Air Force heavies also struck at Bremen, German seacoast town, it was announced. Mixed weather permitted some of the formations to bomb visually through cloud breaks, while others bombed with the aid of instruments.

BOMB AIRDROMES

Liberators also attacked German airdromes at Juvincourt and Lecon-Couvent, northeast of Paris, but cloud conditions prevented observation of results.

The Leuna plant at Merseburg is one of the largest synthetic oil factories still producing. Several previous attacks cut its capacity but it still is an important source for synthetic petroleum, ammonia and other nitrates used by explosives.

Sixty-two planes were reported missing from last night's operations, the air ministry announced today. It was the largest loss sustained by the bomber command since March 30, when 94 planes went down over Nurnberg, Germany, in the heaviest loss ever suffered by an Allied air force. Twenty-three of the missing planes were Canadian.

Ottawa Seeking An Agreement On U.S. Goods

OTTAWA, July 29.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said in the Commons late yesterday the government is attempting to reach an agreement with the United States for the disposal of equipment used by American engineers in the construction of the Alaska highway.

Mr. King said it might be possible to reach an agreement under which the Canadian government would sell the equipment and turn the proceeds of the sales over to the United States after deducting expenses incurred in making the sales. Under law the equipment could not be sold in Canada by the United States government, until customs duties on it had been paid.

REPLY TO OPPOSITION

The Prime Minister's statement was made in reply to opposition members who had urged the government to investigate reports that valuable equipment used on the highway was being destroyed.

Investigation revealed that United States army engineers were closing about 150 construction camps along the highway. They had specific instructions from the United States government to salvage any usable material.

However, such things as blankets and perishable food stuffs were being destroyed.

DISCOUNTS REPORTS

Mr. King said the investigation revealed there was no evidence to support reports that the federal bureau of investigation planned to take action against Canadians in the Peace River District, who allegedly had gone to the equipment dumps at the camp and removed some materials.

The FBI would have no authority to take such action against the Canadian people, Mr. King said.

There was bound to be surplus material left at outposts when a project such as the Alaska highway was undertaken. The cost of getting the equipment to the outposts was high, because much of the transportation had been done by plane.

The government hoped to reach an overall agreement with the United States for disposal of the equipment and arrangements to that effect now are being worked out.

Howard Green (PC-Vancouver South) asked Mr. King to investigate a Vancouver News dispatch which quoted reports that huge medical stores were being destroyed at United States camps in the area of Dawson Creek, B.C.

Give Details New Housing Legislation

OTTAWA, July 29.—(CP)—A resolution providing for the introduction of new housing legislation appeared on the commons order paper today in the name of Finance Minister Lyle.

The legislation is in five parts: 1. Loans for construction of prospective home owners with advances not to exceed $100,000.00. 2. Loans for the construction of homes to be rented. 3. Loans for improvement of housing in rural areas limited to $5,000.00. 4. Loans up to $100,000.00 for alterations and improvements. 5. Undertaking of research to lower housing costs and provide better housing conditions and improvement in community planning.

CHIEF PRINCIPLE

The resolution described the underlying principle of the legislation as promotion of "the construction of new houses, the repair and modernization of existing houses, the improvement of houses and living conditions and the expansion of employment in the post-war period."

The section dealing with assistance in the construction of homes to be rented includes provision for loans, not to exceed $50,000.00 to limited dividend housing corporations to assist in financing low-cost housing projects. In addition, life insurance companies under the jurisdiction of parliament may be given guarantees on loans for the purchase of land and construction of low or moderate-cost housing.

Authority is also given under certain conditions, which are not defined in the resolution, for grants to municipalities to a total not exceeding $20,000,000 for slum clearance.

To assist in improving rural housing the government may enter into contracts with approved lending institutions and may also make agreements with manufacturers of building equipment to assure the production of components for rural homes on an economical cost basis.

Slashed Wrist Duce, in Fear of Allies Attempted to End Life

ROME, July 29.—(AP)—Hysterical and fearful of being handed over to the Allies, Benito Mussolini made a feeble attempt at suicide last Sept. 12, a reliable informant said yesterday, by slashing a wrist with a razor blade.

The half-hearted attempt was made a few hours before Mussolini was freed from the Hotel Campo Imperatore by German paratroopers, said the informant who requested anonymity.

This was the story told by the informant: "On Sept. 12, about 3 a.m., Carabinieri who were at Mussolini's disposal, hurried to the superior officer and told him that the Duce was almost hysterical. The officer ran to Mussolini's room and found him standing up. One wrist was cut and blood had stained a pyjama sleeve. Mussolini held a razor blade.

Visiting Minister McDougall Church

Rev. A. E. Black, B.A., B.D., formerly minister of Central United Church of this city for seven years, will be supply minister at McDougall Church for the month of August. He will preach in his former pulpit in Central Church one Sunday morning during his stay here and will have opportunity to meet his former congregation.

Mr. Black is a reader and thinker who keeps abreast of the times and always brings a vital and timely message in the terms of his day. He gave strong leadership in his own congregation, in public matters, in the city, in the work of Edmonton Presbytery and in the Alberta Conference.

Since leaving here he has served in Mimico United Church, west of Toronto, and is at present minister of Dublin Street Church, Guelph, Ontario. Mrs. Black will accompany her husband and they will reside at McDougall parsonage for the month.

Noted Pedagogue Will Visit the City

John M. Williams, well-known pedagogue, editor and lecturer of New York City, will arrive at the Macdonald hotel in a few days. On Monday, Aug. 21, he will give the first of a series of lectures which will continue for one week. This will doubtless be of great interest to many musicians in Canada who are familiar with his widely used music books.

For the last 20 years, Mr. Williams' home has been in New York City from where he has made many phenomenally successful lecture tours which included all the large cities of the United States as well as those in Great Britain and the continent. After making a most successful lecture debut at Queen's Hall in London, where he was introduced by Sir Adrian Boult, Mr. Williams toured the larger cities of England and Scotland under the sponsorship of his English publishers, Chappell and Co. Ltd.

At the invitation of the Women Music Teachers' Association of the Toronto Conservatory, Mr. Williams gave his lectures at the conservatory, and two years later he appeared as guest of honor before the Provincial Music Teachers' Association in Toronto.

He is the author of more than forty books pertaining to music education. These books are published in the United States by Boston Music Company, Theodore Presser Company and G. Schirmer, Inc. They are also published in England by Chappell and Co. Ltd., and in Australia by Paling and Co. Ltd., of Sydney, and Allan and Co. Ltd. of Melbourne. Several editions in Spanish have been printed for the Latin-American countries. Over 3,000,000 copies of the Williams music materials have been sold—a record in any country.

Mr. Williams' lectures will be given at the Macdonald.

Regular services will be conducted in the First Church of the Nazarene on Sunday by the Rev. A. B. Patterson. Commencing Aug. 1 the Rev. H. L. Volk of Colorado Springs will conduct a series of special services. A victim of infantile paralysis, the preacher sits on a table to deliver his sermons, and appears on President Roosevelt's Roll of Honor as one of those who has made a success of his vocation in spite of his handicap.

The Ven. G. A. Andrew of Honan, China, will be guest preacher at the Good Shepherd Church, Calder, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Holy Communion will be celebrated in St. Peter's, Westmount, at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Edward P. Mapstone, pastor of Beulah Tabernacle will preach on "A Religious Depression" at the morning service Sunday. Sunday evening his topic will be "As Fast As Lightning."

F. L. W. Greenfield, RCAF chaplain at No. 4 ITS will be guest preacher at the evening service in All Saints Cathedral. Other services will be held at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

By Jack Cuddy

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press

NEW YORK, July 29.—Nero fiddled while Rome burned, but genial Charlie Grimm left his banjo "to hum" on his Missouri farm when he took over the Chicago Cubs on May 7, when the windy city was "boinin' up" because the Cubs had just dropped 10 straight games.

Not since Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over the lantern has Chicago's population been so heated as on that day in May, when the previously highly-touted Cubs were in last place in the National League, and advancing rearward rapidly. It was at that point that mustachioed Jimmy Gallagher, business manager, yelled for chucklin' Charlie Grimm to replace Jimmy Wilson at the Cubs' shattered helm.

The cheerful 45-year-old banjo addict was yanked out of Milwaukee, where he and his banjo had become institutions rivaling any one of the five beers steeped in the brewery city. He was yanked back to the Cubs, who had fired him summarily in August, 1938, after nearly six seasons at the Cubs' steering wheel.

ALMOST A FAIRY TALE

WITH or without the banjo, the return of Grimm to the Cubs' managerial post has been almost a fairy tale. Under his guidance, an apparently hopeless wartime aggregation has fought up from its despond and now is knocking on the door of first division in the National League. They are only two games behind the fourth-place New York Giants.

Last night at the Hotel Commodore Grimm said with twinkling eyes, "I'm confident we'll win in first division. And if it weren't for the Pittsburgh Pirates, I'd say we might wind up second. But Frankie Frisch has a club that is just beginning to hit its batting stride." But what about first place?

STILL HAVE CHANCE

GRIMM countered by asking, "Who will win the war?" Then he said, "I suppose I should say that we still have a chance to beat out the Cardinals for the pennant. Maybe we have. But I can't make any statement like that until we beat the Cards once this season. Thus far they have licked us 11 straight times. The Cards have a swell club—beautifully balanced and strong in all departments."

How come the Cubs have improved so much of late? Grimm said, "Our pitching has been better. Les Fleming has won five of his last six. Ed Haneyowski is back after being out since May 17. Claude Passeau, who came in without spring training, is in winning form now; Bill Nicholson, always a late hitter, is doing swell now. Lou Newkirk and Ival Goodman did exceptionally well at outfield replacements for Dom Dilessandro and Andy Pafko, both of whom should return to play soon."

Banjo Charlie emphasized that, regardless of where the Cubs finished, the Chicago fans must be regarded as "champions"—the way they came out to the Cub games even during their losing streak and since then. He concluded, "they've been turned out so well at Wrigley Field that maybe I'll break out the banjo to give them a treat when we clinch a first-division berth."

Browns' League Lead Cut As Tigers Swamp Boston

DETROIT, July 29.—(AP)—Cuffing Paul (Dizzy) Trout from the mound in the fifth inning, Boston Red Sox waltzed to a 15-5 American League victory over Detroit Tigers Friday, sweeping an abbreviated three-game series and shaving St. Louis' league lead to three games.

Boston's outfield of Pete Fox, Bob Johnson and George Metkovich had a field day at bat and on the bases, combining for nine hits, seven runs scored and eight batted in. Fox and Johnson each had three hits.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

By HON. ERNEST MANNING

"Christians Awake!"

OVER 1900 years ago, the Christ, the Son of God, came as a babe to Bethlehem manger, lived among men, and died on Calvary's hill, bearing in His own body, the iniquities of the human race. He arose from the dead, and ascended to the right hand of God the Father, far above all principalities and powers.

Before His ascension He commissioned His little band of disciples to go forth into the world and proclaim the Truth concerning the new Christian way of life which He had opened to men and women, through His voluntary, substitutionary death. "Ye shall know the truth," was His cry to an oppressed and sin-enslaved world, "And the Truth shall make you free!"

Throughout the centuries that torch of Truth has been carried to the uttermost parts of the earth, and wherever it has shone, in all its glory, men and women have rejoiced in the glorious liberty of the sons of God.

For so long, have many enjoyed that liberty and freedom which the Christian way of life has brought in its train, that they have come to take it as a matter of course. Now the world is locked in deadly conflict with a ruthless foe whose determination is to exalt himself above man and God, and to abolish from the earth, the way of life for which Christ died. Speaking in a radio broadcast address at the outbreak of this present war, Mr. Harold Ickes, United States Interior Secretary, declared, "This fight is a religious war—a fight for the Christian religion against the Anti-Christian forces of hatred." Mr. Ickes is a man who knows whereof he speaks.

Every trend towards this destruction of Christianity is a ringing challenge to each and every individual whose freedom is "truth" and whose strength is their God. There can be no doubt that in the present titanic struggle, the mobilization of the full weight of our spiritual resources is of vital importance.

The solemn moment is now upon us when Christian men and women everywhere must demonstrate to the world that the Christian way of life is something more than mere idealism, mere profession, mere creeds and dogmas. We must show the world that it is something worth fighting for. Let us make our Christianity the real thing—a living, vital, personal relationship to the Christ, born of an acceptance of the eternal truths of the infallible Word of the living God. Then, and only then, will we as a Christian nation be so fired with a zeal in the promulgation of the "truth" and principles of our Christian way of life, that we will stand ready to give our all for its preservation and defence.

God give us men and women in this land

who can, and will say,

"I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,

Or to defend His cause."

God give us men and women who will accept the challenge; who will cast aside their indifference, their hesitancy, and their fear of ridicule, and will take up and out stand for the Christ and His way of "truth."

"Soldiers of the Cross, arise!

Gird you with your armour bright,"

Night is your enemy,

Hard the battle ye must fight.

Over a faithless, fallen world

Raise your banner in the sky,

Let it float there; wide unfurled;

Bear it onward; lift it high—

Plan Re-Open Empire Theatre For Fall Season

The Empire theatre will re-open this fall as a theatre L. J. Beag, Vancouver, western general manager for Famous Players Canadian Corporation, stated on his arrival here Saturday in the course of an inspection tour of Western Canada.

He said that occupancy of the theatre would be given to the corporation at the end of August. Renovations and improvements were planned after which the theatre would be available for theatrical productions.

The theatre has been occupied for the last 18 months by the Metcalfe, Hamilton, Kansas City Bridge Co., an American firm engaged on war projects in the north west.

Mr. Beag said that the new theatre, property for which has been purchased on Jasper avenue, will not be built until the post-war period when materials and manpower will be readily available. He said it would be the

Eighth Army Tightens Arc On Florence

By REYNOLDS PACKARD
Special to The Edmonton Sun-
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press
ROME, July 29.—The British Eighth army smashed the German back through the Tuscan hills to within five miles of Florence today and steadily tightened an assault arc on the historical cultural centre while the American siege of Pisa bogged down to a temporary stalemate.

The entire German line on the Florence front sagged under the weight of a converging drive by Lt. Gen. Sir Oliver Leese's troops which overran half a dozen of the central Italian city's outposts. All the ground south of the Arno and Pesa rivers was being cleared, and the Allies were in position for a frontal attack on the main German positions in the Gothic line.

POLES ADVANCE
Polish troops pushing up the Adriatic coast captured the southern part of the fishing port of Senigallia at the mouth of the Misa river 37 miles northwest of Ancona.

The hardest fighting in Italy was on the approaches to Florence, where the Allies were pressing the Germans northward from their last hill line before the city. A furious battle was going on five miles southeast of Florence, where high ground overlooking the city already was in British hands.

New Zealand units of the Eighth Army struck forward more than two miles from their bridgehead across the Pesa river and broke through one of the main parts of the German defence line to seize a footing in the hills looking down on Florence, which the Germans had declared an open city and presumably would abandon when its outlying defences were overrun.

Premier Godbout Sees Civil Strife If Bloc Supported

THETFORD MINES, Que., July 29.—(CP)—Encouragement by the electorate of the Bloc Populaire Party might result in civil war, Premier Godbout said yesterday in a political address at neighboring Lake Megantic.

"Today's youth have a more important part to play than that of our fathers of the past," Mr. Godbout said. "If the Bloc Populaire party were to receive a certain amount of sympathy, I would fear for tomorrow. It might mean the beginning of civil war."

Mr. Godbout said that only "good sense, prudence and charity" in Quebec's dealing with others would assure this province's future greatness. He said the Bloc Populaire was attempting to "build up discontent, division and hatred."

Before the Magistrate

Anne Cikulak, pleading guilty to two charges of theft from an Edmonton departmental store, was fined $5 and costs or 10 days on each, with terms to run consecutively, by Magistrate A. L. Millar, K.C. Saturday morning.

A store detective told the court how the accused was observed putting two pieces of feminine apparel under her coat and leaving the department. A subsequent search of the accused's room revealed two more garments which she admitted having taken from the store.

Nazi Making Mass Killings Among Workers

BERN, Switzerland, July 29.—(AP)—The Nazis are engaged in mass killings of "enemies" among the 12,000,000 foreign workers in Germany and occupied countries, and a Basle newspaper declared hundreds of thousands already had been slain.

The Basle National Zeitung, quoting sources unfortunately too reliable, said the mass killings were being carried out in advance of the German retreat in the east.

The newspaper said these killings were "another possible explanation" of the origin of the German crisis. Many killed inside Germany were slain "while trying to escape," according to the official explanation, the newspaper added.

Japanese Fleeing From North India

KANDY, Ceylon, July 29.—(CP)—The Japanese, in flight from Northeast India to their Burma base, are retreating so rapidly in some sections that only demobilizations and the monsoon are delaying the Allied advance, headquarters announced yesterday. The enemy has fled so rapidly south of Imphal toward his Tiddim base in Burma that the British forces have lost contact, some 35 miles south of Imphal and 25 miles from the Burma border on this route.

Rout Tinian Japs, Advance on Guam

PEARL HARBOR, July 29.—(AP)—Invaders of Guam, after nearly doubling Japanese losses by slaughtering 2,000 counter-attacking enemy, have advanced 800 yards to two miles along the entire beach-head.

The invasion of Tinian, 130 miles northward, has been turned into a route by other marine units which captured eight more square miles. Front line dispatches from Tinian said the Jap garrison on that island, nearest conquered Saipan, is fleeing in disorder.

On Guam, Marines drove Thursday within one-third of a mile of Agaña, Guam's capital in the sector where Japanese counter-attack was broken up.

The greatest gains were made in the central sector opposite Orto peninsula where troops pushed as far as two miles inland. They captured Mount Chachao, Alutau and Tenjo. In the southern sector, units pushed east for more than a mile.

The fast-moving Tinian invaders added a nearly-completed airfield to a 4,500-foot field previously seized on that island.

The enemy has fled so rapidly south of Imphal toward his Tiddim base in Burma that the British forces have lost contact, some 35 miles south of Imphal and 25 miles from the Burma border on this route.

Former Screen Actress Held For Vagrancy

ANTIOCH, Calif., July 29.—(AP)—A young woman, identified by Police Chief Al Leroy as former film actress Frances Farmer, was awaiting her father here last night after pleading guilty to a vagrancy charge. The blue-eyed blond, wearing blue jeans and a man's work shirt, appeared before Justice of the Peace Tom Milan, who fined her $10, and then suspended the fine at a brief hearing.

Leroy said E. M. Farmer, Seattle attorney, was en route from Reno, Nev., to rejoin his daughter. Farmer had taken his daughter to Reno for treatment after her dismissal from the Western State hospital at St. Helens, Wash., where she had been pronounced "completely cured" of a mental illness.

Nazi to Shift Millions in New All-Out Effort

LONDON, July 29.—(CP)—Transoceanic Nazi propaganda agency broadcast from Berlin last night that the latest Nazi "all out" war effort ordered by Reich Minister Goebbels would involve shifting "not hundreds of thousands, but millions" of men and women in non-essential work to replace men needed to bolster the fighting forces. Extension of the working women's age from 45 to 50 "appeared" among the first measures expected, said the broadcast, declaring that in England the age was 55.

Former Vanities Beauty Divorced

RENO, Nev., July 29.—(AP)—Martha Devine Dodge, former Vanities beauty, yesterday obtained a divorce and nearly $100,000 from Horace Elgin Dodge, New York City wealthy sportsman. In exchange for the payment Dodge was handed a box by the bank. Martin Scanlan, Reno attorney, said he thought the box contained testimony in the New York divorce action which was discontinued yesterday just before the Reno trial.

Strike Continues

HALIFAX, July 29.—(CP)—A general strike at the Halifax Shipyards, Limited, and its marine slip and windmill pier across the harbor entered its third day today. About 3,000 workers still holding out for maintenance of union membership and a check-off.

New Partnership In Realty Firm Is Established

Boyce E. Greene and Hugh S. Miller announced Saturday that they have formed a partnership and have purchased the old established firm of R. L. Greene and Kirkpatrick Limited, which first started business in this city in 1912 as a branch of Allan, Killam and McKay of Winnipeg, and later incorporated as Allan, Killam, McKay Alberta Limited.

In 1921 R. L. Greene purchased an interest in the firm and the name was then changed to Allan, Killam, McKay Greene Limited. Two years after that R. L. Greene acquired the shares of the other partners and carried on the business as R. L. Greene and Company Limited with Boyce E. Greene as a director and Hugh S. Miller as secretary and treasurer until 1936 when the insurance business of Kirkpatrick and Company was amalgamated with the real estate and insurance business of R. L. Greene and Company Limited.

OTHER INTERESTS
The firm then became R. L. Greene and Kirkpatrick Limited, but R. L. Greene retired from active participation in the business to devote his time to other interests in the city.

Several years ago George N. Kirkpatrick was taken ill and has been residing at Sidney, B.C. Since then the business has been managed by Mr. Greene and Mr. Miller. Although Mr. Kirkpatrick's health has greatly improved in the last year or two, he has decided to remain at the coast and has disposed of his interest in the firm to Messrs. Greene and Miller, who will carry on at the same location and with the same staff, thus assuring its many clients of the continued efficient and courteous service for which this firm has become well known.

Two Nippon Ships Sunk, Third Fired By Allied Aircraft

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, July 29.—(AP)—Allied aircraft sank two Japanese ships, set fire to a third, and destroyed numerous smaller craft in a day of unusual activity reported today by headquarters.

War planes of all sizes flew bombing, strafing and harassing missions against 17 major objectives Thursday, across the western hump of Dutch New Guinea and adjacent islands.

Medium bombers raided shipping off the south coast of Vogelkop peninsula, sinking a 100-foot vessel and leaving a 1,000-ton freighter in flames. Several other small craft were destroyed.

One bomber sank a medium sized merchantman north of Ceram island, which is 310 miles southwest of American-held Noemfoor.

Other parades for the week are cancelled—Chas. E. Garnett, Officer Commanding, No. 1 (A) Arm Div. Ordinance Workshop.

FIRST (B) FIELD BATTERY, R.C.A.
Monday, July 31, at 1945 hrs. Officers, M.G.'s and specialists' classes. Wednesday, Aug. 2, at 1945 hrs. All ranks will parade at Prince of Wales armory.

Personnel attending annual camp must attend this parade for issue of equipment and receive final instructions on movement to Borneo camp. Camp will be on Saturday.

One meal will be provided on the day.

Civic Program Post-War Work Given by Mayor

position of the city, and the substantial amount set aside in reserves for post-war work. The purpose of the program is to catch up on many projects needed by the city but which have to be postponed because of shortage of materials and manpower.

While the program has not been finally passed upon by the commissioners for submission to city council it is understood that expenditures contemplated include:

Walks and crossings $ 225,000
Grading and graveling 225,000
Street paving 2,500,000
Bridges and subways 500,000
Sewers and drainage 1,100,000
Parks collection and disposal 200,000

The street paving allotment contemplated will provide between 650,000 and 700,000 square yards of paving, which will include replacement of obsolete sidewalks particularly in the downtown section of the city, and the provision of walks along certain arterial highways to eliminate pedestrian hazards. Provision will be made also for construction of sidewalks in districts where no sidewalks now exist.

Under the heading of sewers and drainage it is suggested that the bulk of the sewerage system be constructed as now laid to Jasper Avenue east, and in South Garneau and other districts where sewers now are overloaded during heavy rain periods and storms.

It is proposed also to build a storm sewer through the Great Ravine. This would provide a location for a west end outlet for Victoria Park and the golf links.

BRIDGE PLANS

Plans for bridges, the report states, would include the duplication of the low level bridge on its upstream side to give a double line of traffic on this structure. The re-decking of the 102 street bridge and the bridge on 102 avenue across the river, and the construction of the bridge on Ada boulevard over the Highlands ravine are other projects mentioned.

Other construction items include the building of subways at 96 and 95 streets at the CNR tracks, but these are subject to participation in the projects by the Dominion government and the CNR.

The program outlined by the city engineer, now being considered by the city commissioners, is from three to six times the size of the annual capital program, and the working force employed on it would be between 500 and 600 at one time.

Another German General Is Killed

LONDON, July 29.—(CP)—The German radio last night announced the death of another general—Major Ernst Vahl—killed in a "fight accident" while touring the front. The report did not say which front. Vahl was identified as commander of an elite SS division, aged 48, and a veteran of the First Great War.

SC Candidate Raps Alberta Leader of CCF

The CCF party and Elmer Roper have suddenly sprung to the defence of the people of Alberta. N. B. James, Social Credit candidate in the forthcoming provincial election told a public meeting Friday night, but, he added, in the early years of Social Credit legislation "When we were really doing something for the people of Alberta, where was Elmer?"

"Elmer Roper," he said, "was secretary of an organization backed by the mortgage companies and financial interests of Alberta; an organization formed to oppose Social Credit and its measures of social legislation. They gave the government the foulest mud-slinging opposition it ever got in its efforts to better conditions for the people of Alberta."

OTHER SPEAKERS

Other Social Credit candidates who also addressed the meeting which was held in St. Luke's hall, were J. E. Gillies, H. D. Carrigan and Orvis A. Kennedy.

Mr. James also spoke of the Dominion government policy regarding old age pensions and termed it "An absolute disgrace to any decent, civilized, Christian country."

"The method of doing out as though it was charity, the least possible amount to the men and women who have pioneered this country, is disgraceful," he said.

He pointed out that the recent increase to $25 a month in the Dominion old age pension could be attributed to the constant pressure brought to bear on the Dominion government by the people of Alberta through the Social Credit government.

"Social Credit intends to continue its fight for better conditions for old age pensioners," Mr. James said, "until the pension is raised to $50 a month, and the age lowered to 60 years. Every one, millionaire and pauper alike, should receive his pension without any stipulations or red tape attached."

Mr. James said the CCF party is continually contradicting itself in the present campaign with such resulting confusion that no one knows what it's going to do.

"Members of the party can't even get together on the number of seats they think they're going to win," he said.

"Social Credit has been accused of changes," he said, "but I defy anyone to point to a single original principle of Social Credit which we have forsaken."

"Mr. Roper claims they're not going to socialize anything now," Mr. James stated, "they're just going to take over the large monopolies. Yet the CCF textbooks say they are going to socialize land and industry. Recently two of their speakers have definitely stated that the CCF party will bring in state socialism. If they're going to socialize anything they'll have to socialize everything."

"If socialism once gets a foothold in Canada we'll have a national socialism such as they have in Germany today and for which our boys in Europe are giving their lives to stamp out," he concluded.

FIGHT FOR SECURITY

J. B. Gillies said "Social credit is fighting for security and freedom. The CCF may give you some security but you'll be robbed of all freedom."

He reviewed the government's financial record stressing the point that they had heeded the people's plea to avoid debt and had operated on a "pay-as-you-go plan." "In addition," he said, "during the last nine years of legislation this government has wiped out $17,000,000 of the $158,000,000 debt inherited from previous administrations."

Mr. Gillies said Social Credit had not repudiated government debt but had cut the interest rate on the bonds. "This measure was forced by the state of bankruptcy existing in the province when Social Credit came into power," he said, "and was the lesser of two evils. It was that or nothing at all."

Mr. Carrigan speaking on the CCF plan to socialize industry in Alberta called it "impractical, ill considered, vote catcher, and not worth the attention it is being given on public platforms."

"It is said that in the south country, the socialists are circulating propaganda containing the promise that, if a socialist government is formed in Alberta, the sum of $600,000,000 will be spent on rural electrification in the first two years of office," he said.

JUST ENJOY PROFITS

"Socialism is good business for big business. It means that the stockholders are changed into bondholders. As bondholders, holding a perpetual loan on production, they can sit back and enjoy profits under the form of bond interest, without taking the business risks, incidental to private ownership of business."

"The people of Alberta as owners of the business would take all the risks and the business would have to find two profits. One to pay the interest on the bonds issued and to provide for depreciation, and another to pay for the social services promised from public ownership."

"Increased taxation would have to be enforced in years when profits of state-managed business were too small to meet its obligations and soon remaining private enterprise would say to the government, 'take over, we'd be better off as bondholders getting interest. The inevitable result must be confiscation, and all socialists know that confiscation must be accompanied by revolution. Then you have communism. Communism has been defined as 'socialism in a hurry.'"

OUTLINES POLICIES

Mr. Kennedy outlined the policies of the government and said "Social Credit has the cure-all for economic ills."

The CCF say they will give the people of Alberta the Calgary Power plant, he said, well we'll give you the power. Social Credit can give electrical power to every farmer in Alberta at lower cost than any other province, except for one root cause—creation of credit.

We must get control of issuing credit against the physical assets of the province, he said.

"Socialists claim they are upholding the laboring man in the province but the laborers know Social Credit has given them the most pro-

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION:

Should profits made in good times from the civic utilities be passed on to the consumer through lower utility rates?

THE ANSWERS:

HARRY OLIVER, clerk: In my opinion the profits should be used as largely as possible in reducing the capital debt on the utilities. This will afford relief from taxation through lower interest payments as the debt is reduced and will be of permanent benefit.

FRED HAMILTON, caretaker: I would not favor any reduction in rates while there is such a large debt owing on the utilities, and also while so much has to be accomplished in rehabilitation and extension. The street railway is a shining example of what I mean. We need more rolling stock, the track needs considerable attention, and money will be needed for many other improvements on this utility alone when materials and men are available. I would say put the utilities in first class shape before any reduction in rates was granted.

JOHN PORTER, carpenter: Our rates now seem to be reasonable, but there possibly might be a reduction in light charges. I understand that our street railway fare is the lowest in Canada, and that our water is coming to us at cost.

Edmonton Airman Is Flying Again

After nearly five months in a hospital and a convalescent home it feels good to get back in the air again, even in a training plane, according to P.O. George West of 10550 83 street, according to information received here Saturday from Great Britain.

Since West baled out of his Beaufighter and injured his leg last January, his night fighter squadron, the Nighthawks, have converted to Mosquitos. This means a special conversion training for the Edmonton pilot, but in the meantime he's getting the feel of flying again in a twin-engine Oxford.

"I was pretty shaky the first time out," he said, "but I'll be O.K. as soon as the old legs get used to the controls again."

West has been with the Nighthawks since September last year.

Two weeks ago, the council stated it was ready to withdraw its request for a royal inquiry, providing the federal government instituted a "fair, ordinary inquiry."

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Happy Marriages Prove Puzzle to Most People

Nobody Knows What Brings Success in Marriage, Whether to Wed From Fancy or Cold Appraisal; Psychologists Equally Baffled

It is a queer thing that, although millions upon millions of men and women have experimented with matrimony since time immemorial, no one has yet found out just what it takes to make marriage a success. We don't even know what to marry for, nor whether to pick out our husbands and wives with our fancies, or to use our heads when we do it.

Unfortunately, all the teachings we get about choosing our mates come from novelists and poets and the cinema and they are all strong for glamor and are all for boys leading their Dream Girls to the altar and maidens wedding their Prince Charming. Which would be perfectly delightful if the supply of Prince Charmings and Dream Girls was not so limited, and if love's young dream didn't so often turn into a nightmare after marriage.

CREATES FALSE STANDARDS

But the worst of all of this romantic propaganda is that it establishes a false standard of love by which so many men and women judge their emotions, and because they can never feel the chills and fevers and hectic thrills which they have been taught are the manifestations of the tender passion, they feel for some man or woman without recognizing it as love, and go on their lonely ways searching for the palpitations they are constitutionally incapable of having.

I get innumerable letters from women saying that men whom they have known all their lives want to marry them. The men are fine chaps. They would make ideal husbands. And the women respect and admire them because they don't make love like cinema heroes, and because they, themselves, don't have hysterics at the sound of Tom's or Jim's footsteps.

The foolish girls are waiting to experience symptoms of love which they can never have, because they are sane sensible individuals with nothing neurotic about them. And the tragedy of it is that they wait so long for the impossible to happen to them that the men marry somebody else, and they are left lamenting.

EMOTION NOT ENOUGH

These mistaught, silly sentimentalists lose their chance of real happiness because they do not understand that there are many things besides romance that go into the making of a successful marriage. There is a calm, quiet love that expresses itself in service, instead of passionate vows of devotion, and that wraps a woman in a peace that is like the peace of God. Thousands of inarticulate husbands and wives who, as the phrase goes, "take each other for granted" are living love lolls greater than any poet or novelist ever imagined. For the happy marriage must have in it something more than emotion. It must have suitability and congeniality which lasts long after romance and thrills have gone with the wind.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

ADENOIDS AND STUPIDITY

What has become of the "trained" nurse, the teacher, or the doctor, forsooth, who used to take an appraising second look at the unhappy school kid caught with his hands down and his attention wool-gathering and forthwith sentence the poor kid to an operation for adenoids? That sort of malpractice was an everyday occurrence when you and I were young, Maggie.

This snap diagnosis was made on "adenoid faces." Classical example of the "adenoid face" is, or was, Van Leyden's portrait of Ferdinand I of Spain—open mouth, stupid expression, dull hollow eyes, short upper lip exposing upper teeth, narrow high arched palate, crowded uneven upper teeth, pinched or narrow nostrils, mouth breathing and generally more or less impairment of hearing. All of these features may go with simple enlargement of the tonsils, whether there is significant thickening hyperplasia or "vegetations" of the pharyngeal tonsil (third tonsil, adenoids) or not.

As a matter of fact a child with sufficient obstruction of breathing to give rise to such features of the "adenoid face" has the same I. Q. as a child without such trouble. If you allow for (1) the handicap of under oxygenation which, of course, impairs or weakens all vital functions, physical and mental; (2) the handicap of defective hearing, which, as I see it, is one of the very few consequences of tonsil and adenoid enlargement that may justify surgery—not that deafness in such cases necessarily warrants surgical removal of the tonsils or adenoids, for in many cases a few X-ray treatments in the hands of a physician skilled in that field will suffice.

If there is any special mental deficiency, stupidity or dullness associated with adenoids or enlarged tonsils, other than the general vital handicaps mentioned, it is the stupidity and incompetency of the doctors, nurses, teachers, social service agents and parents who conspire to subject children with large tonsils to operation.

Some readers may remember that I was formerly more enthusiastic about the removal of enlarged tonsils and adenoids than I am now. In my book "Personal Health" now out of print, I represented the operation as comparatively free from risk and productive of uniformly good results. In the pamphlet "Adenoids and Tonsils"—copy available on request if you provide stamped envelope bearing your address—it is clear that I have grown conservative.

"She wanted to charge a dollar, but the W.P.T.B. put a ceiling on her!"

W.I. in Northern Alberta

By MRS. HUGH J. MONTGOMERY—Box 514, Wetaskiwin.

MID-PENINSULA

In spite of muddy roads 75 were present from Echo Hill, Busby, Independence, Westlock, Pibroch, Fawcett and Picardville branches of the W.I. at a conference held in the United church, Picardville, recently. Mrs. A. H. MacDonald, Alameda, president, Mrs. Donald Whitson was secretary.

In place of Mrs. H. R. Evans, district director, who was unable to be present, Mrs. A. H. Rogers, Edmonton, was the speaker and gave an interesting account of her recent visit to Kentville, N.S., where she attended the Dominion meeting of the Navy League of Canada. She also read a letter from Mrs. E. E. Morton, provincial convener of A.W.I. war work, giving helpful suggestions.

Mrs. Mills as constituency convener of war work reported activity among the branches and work accomplished. Standing committee and branch reports were excellent. Under the supervision of Mrs. Fulton, a fine exhibit of handicrafts was shown. Busby winning first prize, Picardville second, and Westlock third.

In the quilt competition Fawcett was first, Westlock second, and Pibroch third. Mrs. G. Sterling of Westlock was unanimously elected constituency convener. Mrs. Teasdale to be secretary. An invitation to meet in Busby in 1945 was accepted. Vocal solos and recitations were interspersed throughout the program. Echo Hill W.I. were hostesses at luncheon and tea.

Due to flood conditions around Mahaska, it was found necessary to postpone the constituency conference.

Mrs. Pugh, WPTB representative reported on meeting provincial officers of the board regards the high prices charged for meat, and advised members to be sure to see that weights were included on the sale slips when the purchases were made or otherwise no check could be kept nor action taken.

Mrs. Faulkner, R.N., a former resident of Peace River, spoke to a recent meeting on preventative medicine and recommended at least a yearly examination. Mrs. Finlay and Mrs. Claxton convened a tea earlier in the month at which articles of handicraft were displayed as well as bundles for Britain. A donation was made to the Salvation Army.

The committee in charge of the nurse's home reported the house and barn had been painted. A layette has been sent to a young mother.

CHERRY POINT

If materials may be purchased the W.I. will be responsible for having the local cemetery fenced. Articles are being made for a bazaar and quilt is also being made. The delegate appointed was unable to attend the conference held at Beaver Lodge so handicraft was not exhibited.

KANATA

A tea is being arranged for August 9 to take place at the Buffalo Lake home of Miss Doris Raemer. Proceeds will be used for comforts for the ship "Stettler." For the eighth year members will attend the birthday party of Mrs. Moore, who will celebrate the event on August 2. Canning booklets furnished by Miss Anderson of Stettler, were distributed.

ARGYLE

Miss Olive Fleming reported the constituency conference held at Strome and referred to the prize for the best display in knitting coming to the Argyle branch. Articles were afterwards shipped to the Navy League. Members will make clothing for a woman and the outfit will be sent to Greek Relief. A discussion of the address by Dr. Hemmings of Killam, which he gave at the recent conference, on the control of venereal diseases, took place. Mrs. Fleming, convener of health also told of a new drug used in cases of infections.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDER

There are few questions so fraught with the danger of misinterpretation as those which have to do with a discussion of the two sexes and their variations.

Yet one has only to look about one at the individuals in any social group to recognize that there are men, carrying on the sex role of men, who have highly developed effeminate tendencies; and women who look and talk more like men than women and have masculine interests and capacities.

And in the centre of the scale are those hapless individuals who are neither one sex or the other but look like men and want to be women, or look like women and want to be men. These are the individuals warped by nature or education who are looked upon with contempt by members of both sexes.

Here is a father who views his son realistically and worries about the happiness of his future. "He is 15 now and very much interested in designing women's clothing. Now please don't put him down as a sissy," he writes, "he is abnormal in any way. Let us say he has a girl's soul in a boy's body."

"He was alone with my wife and her relatives for some time after he was born as I am gone a lot. His playmates were all girls and his companions women. My wife even dressed him in a girlish way as she had planned on having a girl."

"He wants to get into the women's dress business. He works for a milliner now, carrying packages, and she says he is very clever with his hands. How shall I advise him wisely? I want him to marry, of course, and have a wife who will appreciate him. Please publish your opinion and advice."

It is too early to pigeon-hole him yet, or even take his interest too seriously, for he may not yet have matured. Until he does he is not in a position to determine his future interests for they may change materially and in a relatively short time.

But, there is certainly no odium attached to being a designer in either millinery or clothing. Probably the best known names in either field are masculine.

He needs an education, now, and if his interest is in clothing and design then by all means cultivate that interest. In two or three years he will be able to assay his own interests and determine his life's work. You are a very understanding father, though, and I feel sure you will handle his problem wisely.

Our leaflet, "The Adolescent," may be had by parents trying to understand their growing children. You may have this leaflet by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Myrtle Meyer Eldred, in care of this newspaper.

War Kitchen

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Cooked ham or meat loaf, salami, pickle and pimiento loaf, liver sausage, and relishes provide inspiration for any lunch-packer. Try a nippy spread for the bread, in place of the usual butter.

ZESTFUL SPREADS

Four to six sandwiches may be made from one-fourth cup of softened spread mixed with any of the following:

Two tablespoons chili sauce (or home-made catsup), 1 tablespoon mustard, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon finely minced onion or chives.

PREPARED MEAT SANDWICH SUGGESTIONS

Compose a club-style sandwich with old-fashioned meat loaf, tomato, slices, watercress or lettuce. Dice cooked ham and salami. Moisten with salad dressing. Place sliced pimiento olives on braunschweiger liver-sausage. For an open-faced supper sandwich, scramble eggs and add diced New England cooked specialty and a touch of onion. Serve on toast. Double-decker sandwich with egg salad filling in one layer and several thin slices of pickle-and-pimiento meat loaf in the other layer. Chopped dry sausage, diced celery and cucumber, with mayonnaise enough to moisten. In preparing meat sandwiches, remember that several thin slices make for easier eating than one thick slice.

Monday's Menu

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit halves, chipped beef on toast, coffee, milk. LUNCHEON: Grilled liverburgers on buns, leftover spiced beef salad, fresh apricots or plums, milk. DINNER: Quick meat pie with vegetables and chive biscuits, molded cabbage and sweet pickle salad, chocolate brownies, coffee or tea.

Miss June Sutherland Is Bride of Russell Sheppard

Oriental vases of gladioli, stocks, anemones and sweet peas formed the decorations in front of the fireplace at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hanslip, 9921 103 street, Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, for the marriage of her niece, Miss June Sutherland, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland, and Russell Sheppard, second son of Mrs. R. J. Sheppard and the late Mr. Sheppard, all of Edmonton. The Rev. McKelroy Thompson officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an afternoon frock of turquoise, fashioned on princess lines. The bodice featured an old-fashioned stand up frilled collar which ended in a V-neckline. Her bracelet-length sleeves were also edged in matching frilling. She wore a small Juliet cap of brown felt trimmed with a shoulder-length veil of brown. Her shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses and gardenias completed her ensemble.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS

Miss Margaret Sutherland was her sister's only attendant, wearing a dusky rose street-length frock, buttoned down the front. The neckline featured soft folds edged in frilling. The sleeves were short. She wore a small matching rose band on her hair held in place by small rosettes of matching rose, and trimmed in brown veiling. Her corsage was of pink roses and cornflowers.

FROST LINEN

The bride's table was set in a frost white handmade lace cloth, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Low silver bowls of pink pink and white sweet peas, and tall pink tapers in silver holders, completed the table decorations. Mrs. Harold Sheppard presided at the tea table, and Miss Rita LaBine and Mrs. Albert Munroe assisted in serving.

Mrs. Sutherland chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue crepe redingote frock, worn over a lighter blue dress. Her hat was a small navy blue straw trimmed with white pique bows, and her accessories were navy blue. She wore a corsage of red carnations.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Sheppard, was dressed in a black crepe afternoon frock trimmed with black lace. The skirt was a draped effect. Her corsage was of cream roses. Mrs. Hanslip wore a navy street-length frock with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard left later on a three week's wedding trip. On their return they will take up residence in the city.

Art Exhibit Outstanding

An outstanding exhibit of water colors, and all paintings is on view in the senate hall of the University of Alberta, sponsored by the Alberta Society of Artists. The exhibition was shown at the Calgary Stampede, and will be on view here until the end of August.

Among the signatures on the paintings are R. L. Harvey, R. W. Hodley, James Diekmann, Leo E. Pearson, Alex J. Garner, Margaret Milligan, Marion Nicoll, W. B. Milne, Gerda Christofferson, H. G. Glyde, Florence Mortimer, R. M. Heacock, Hilda Mitchell, Isabel Stadelbauer, Margaret Chappell, Jessie R. Urnsbach, James Nicoll, W. B. Milne, Roland Gissing, W. St. J. Miller, Dorothy Willis, W. F. Irwin, Gertrude Fleming, and J. Gordon Sinclair.

INCLUDES PORTRAIT

One outstanding portrait is that entitled "Ganny" painted by Gerda Christofferson. It is the study of an elderly woman, sitting in her chair knitting. The lines of the face are exceptionally well done. The colors are soft and pleasing to the eye.

STRONG IN DETAIL

Dorothy Willis' Portrait of My Son is strong in detail and shows the child's teddy bear and dressing gown sitting on a chair, his legs against the wall, and finally his army cap lying on the floor beside the chair. On the wall behind him is the hand-drawn "people will live." The pictures range from still life, portraits, local scenes, and mountain scenes. All are exceedingly well done.

SELLS $1,110 WORTH OF TICKETS

Weber, who is a member of the Fort Edmonton Chapter, IOOE, and who sold $1,110 worth of tickets on the bungalow, the sale of which was sponsored by the War Services Council of Northern Alberta. WAC. Mess Sergeants Are Most Dated Girls Overseas

HEADQUARTERS EIGHTH AIR FORCE, England.—The way to a man's heart is still through his stomach, WAC cooks here have discovered. It seems that boys who want to lick the batter bowl when mom baked a chocolate cake just can't resist the lure of the kitchen and the reputation of the WACs as cooks has traveled all over this area.

An American engineer recently dropped into the WAC mess and pleaded for a cup of coffee, explaining that he had heard about it all the way up in Scotland.

MOST DATED Mess sergeants find they are just about the most popular WACs overseas. Dated up weeks in advance they have a sneaking suspicion that their ability to make GI eggs taste like real eggs may have something to do with their popularity.

At the risk of starting a feud with their masculine counterparts in the Army, the WAC cooks believe they have a slight edge on the menfolk when it comes to culinary ability. Working in a kitchen that looks like a doll house and using antiquated English equipment, they manage to turn out de luxe meals.

SAME RATIONS "WAC and Army cooks get the same rations—the same frozen meat, canned vegetables, powdered and dehydrated foods, etc.—being women we fuss more," explains Mess Sergeant Constance G. Delahoyde of Bath, N.Y. "We pay attention to timing and make sure that vegetables are never over or undercooked. We take the trouble to dress up food and make it eye-inviting as well as tasty with dashes of paprika, sprigs of parsley and sauces. When it comes to cakes, we even manage to ice and decorate them once in a while."

Most difficult to make palatable WAC cooks report, are powdered and dehydrated foods. One GI expressed the sentiment of many when he said that he never wanted to see anything powdered again after the war, including his girl.

GET OVER MURDER Miss Sergeant Florence Irvin of Los Angeles, Calif., says that WAC cooks get over this hurdle by flavoring eggs with bacon, tomato, cheese, or salmon. One cook is even reputed to have cut pieces of ping pong balls into powdered eggs to make them look like the real thing.

The girls like their job and they like being in England in a theatre of operations. There's never a dull moment in an Army kitchen, but the cooks have learned to take most everything in stride. When a formation of Forts passes over the mess hall and the WACs know that men who only a short time ago were in the mess making sizeable inroads into delicacies, are on their way to bomb Nazi targets, there is only a momentary pause in the business of cooking for 300 hungry WACs, while they plan something special for the airmen's homecoming.

Austria Governor Is Said Interned

ZURICH, July 28.—(CP)—Travelers reaching Zurich from Vienna say that Baldur von Schirach, German governor of Austria, has been interned in a Vienna hotel on Himmler's orders for failing to take sufficiently energetic action against an anti-Hitler group.

He is also suspected of being in contact with Austrian aristocrats who are alleged to be working against the Hitler regime in close co-operation with Austrian clergymen, the report said.

This group is said to have a plan for submission to the Pope through the Austrian clergy in which a revolt in Austria and a separate peace with the Allies is envisaged. The plan is reported to have been made with the cognizance of Schirach, who did not take action against it.

Following the usual custom the Museum of Arts on the fourth floor of the Civic Block will be closed during the month of August.

Killed in Action

HAMILTON, Ont., July 28.—(CP)—Lieut. George A. McDermott of Hamilton, who won the Military Medal for his exploits at Dieppe while serving with the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry Regiment, has been killed in action in Normandy where he was serving on loan to the British army, relatives here said last night. A sister, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, lives at Victoria, B.C.

Lt.-Col. Dover To Visit City

CALGARY, July 28.—(CP)—"The war is not over, and until it is there is a definite and urgent need for women in the Canadian Women's Army Corps," said Lt.-Col. Mary Dover when interviewed here Thursday. Lt.-Col. Dover, the first woman in Calgary to don khaki, on a recruiting tour of Canada to enlist 5,000 girls in the CWAC, said, "The women of our enemies are fighting, and we have to fight them." Women of Canada have "surpassed their American sisters in enlistment in proportion to the population," she said.

REHABILITATION

Speaking of rehabilitation she stated that plans for women in this respect are the same as those for men. Lt.-Col. Dover will leave Monday for Edmonton, will continue from there to Regina and then on to Winnipeg. She is attached to the defence headquarters staff in Ottawa.

Sea Cadets Go To Summer Camp

One hundred and fifty Sea Cadets from Edmonton will leave the city by special train Sunday morning for a two-week summer camp at Lake Cheate, south of Calgary. It is expected that 300 cadets will attend the camp, with others joining the party from Wainwright, Wetaskiwin, Millet and Camrose. Lt. Louis Hyndman, RCNVR, will be in charge of the group from this city and Lt. (S.D.) Webster, RCNVR, Calgary, will be in command of the camp.

The cadet bugle band will go to camp, and members will fall in at the railway station. In addition to courses in seamanship, signalling, and other basic subjects, cadets will take extensive boat work, pulling and sailing.

Man Is Injured In Mine Mishap

Said to have fallen down a shaft at the Black Point mines, John Chumera, 27 years old, of Ellerslie, was rushed to the city and admitted to the General hospital about 2 p.m. Friday. It was learned at the hospital he had received several fractures, which included one leg and a femur broken. He was brought to the city by Smith's ambulance.

Also in hospital, suffering from a broken ankle, was Mrs. Earl Hous, 23-year-old dairy employee, 9439 102 avenue, who was admitted to the General hospital about 10:30 a.m. Friday. She broke her ankle when she fell while at her work, it was stated.

Front Lost!

WITH AN ADVANCED AMERICAN PATROL, Rome, July 28 (AP)—This American tank column is pushing toward the sea south of Coutances under cover of dive-bombers with such speed that a German regimental tank commander was overtaken and captured while wandering around in a car looking for his collapsing front. With him were three members of his staff and a driver.
